

FCAC PROSPECTIVE CLIENT INFORMATION SHEET
WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN CONSIDERING ACCOUNTABILITY COURT

- The program is an 18-24 month program focused on treatment, case management, community supervision, and drug testing.
- You will attend treatment 4 weekday mornings each week from 8:30 am to noon for at least the first 3 months of the program. You are expected to make adjustments to other commitments in order to attend. Attendance is not optional.
- You will progress through a series of phases that transition to evening treatment groups and reduced number of hours.
- If you need additional treatment, we will refer you to inpatient treatment and/or medication treatment.
- We will need to verify safe housing via an onsite home visit
- The program will assist you with: housing (up to 90 days), job training and search, medical referrals, GED, getting IDs.
- You will pay $750 in fees over 18 months ($300 for BHTC program).
- Expect to be drug tested 2-5 times per week, including weekends.
- You will be required to load an app on your phone which allows us to monitor your curfew and location.
- You can expect home visits from our investigators.
- The probation officer assigned to your case will coordinate your probation with other jurisdictions if necessary.
- If you incur any infractions, non-compliance, or rule breaking, the program uses a series of sanctions that get more severe as the behavior continues. These sanctions extend from writing papers to short jail stays.
- Pre-Indictment participants waive their right to a statute of limitations defense.
- Probation may be tolled for plea or revocation participants who abscond (go AWOL).
